From the Galena Gazette, May 27. Five Ladies Saw a Cord of Wood and Win $100,

A few evenings since a little party, consisting of five young ladles and two consisting of five young ladies and two young gentlemen, happened to meet in a parlor, in thus city. During the conversation one of the gentlemen (whom we will call "A.") said to the other (who shall be known as "B.") that he would give him one hundred dollars if he would saw one cord of wood twice in two in one day, in the most public place on Main Street. B. declined. Sawing wood was not his best hold, and the fear of breaking down before accomplishing of breaking down before accomplishing the task, and thus being the subject of a FURNISHING good joke, induced him not to attempt the task. The ladies being inclined to are the the task. The ladies being inclined to arge B. to accept the offer, remarked that perhaps they would like to try it themselves, adding that if they would do so, and were successful, he would give them the $100. With one voice stock of they consented. Next day they procured a cord of wood, and had it hauled about two miles out of town, where they Boots and Shoes, Rubber Coats sat about the task. The scene was asat about the task. The scene was armising. They fingers, trained to glide lightly over the keys of the piano, might have been seen lifting heavy sticks of cord-wood to the saw-horse. Delicate white hands grasped the saw, which was pushed with a will. They went to work like those who have an end in piant and are bound to velo. Bight view, and are bound to win. Right manfully did they struggle on till the task was accomplished. A., who had been watching the progress of the work, then offered them ten dollars for one load of the wood, provided they would deliver it in his office in Galena. The next morning they put five sticks of wood into a buggy (a load, of course) and delivered it in A.'s office, A. "came down" with his ten dollars, and B. with his one hundred. For the bene-

"Come Down."

We were much amused the other day by an aneedote of a certain Secretary of a Governor, several removes backward a Governor, several removes backward from the present Chief Magistrate of the Empire State. Like most sub-officials, to whom some "pressing" final process American House, Lake Street. is committed, he had an itching palm, while, at the same time, it would not be exactly safe to show his hand too openly. On one occasion he had, for the third time, been waited upon by an impatient party interested in two important bills which had passed the Legislature, and, with sundry others, were awaiting the Governor's signature.

"Did you place my bills before his Excellency?" asked the party of the "N-n-not yet," said he (he had a slight impediment in his speech), nnot quite yet: the G-g-governor's v-very busy. By the b-by, what was the n-name of the m-man that g-got up into a t-tree when our Saviour was w -walking along t—that way ?"

"Oh, you mean Zaccheus ?"

"Y-yes; that's the man. W-well, do you r-recollect what was said to

"Certainly; 'Zaccheus, come down!"
"Ex-a-actly; ye-es, 'come down!"
I was thinking of that ye-esterday, when you e-called, but I c-couldn't r-re-member the name!"

The hint was taken; the party "come down" accordingly; and when he next called his signed bills were ready for him.—Galaxy.

Ber We regret to notice that notwithstanding the prominence acquired by the rumor that the Conservative Republicans, led by Mr. Thurlow Weed, have resolved to bring forward the Hon. Horace Greeley as a candidate for Governor in the Republican Convention of July 8, the attacks on Mr. Greeley and on the Radicals are still continued in Mr. Weed's Journal. We dare say that there is some provocation, but the policy is at least original. Usually, when you are going to run a candidate, you plaster him with praise, show up his good points, keep his foibles shady, and do everything you can to make a great man of him. But Mr. Weed and the Conservatives are old and cunning politicians, and know well what they are about Besides, they have been beaten so often in Republican State Conventions, that they may think it necessary to use extraordinary precautions to hide their tracks.—N. Y. Sun.

The Sun has a cool way with it, that is refreshing from such a luminary.

A New York letter says: "The ladies have given up staying at home for want of escorts, and attend lectures, theaters and concerts quite independently. At Ristari's performance, on Monday inght, the critic, Miss Kate Field, en-tered with another lady as her only es-cort, and several ladies of standing, and good breeding too, have adopted the precedent.

The assistant superintendent of the public schools of New York said, in public discussion the other day: "Of public schools of New York said, in public discussion the other day: "Of all the subjects pursued in the higher classes of the schools, none other seems so barren of results commensurate with the time it costs, as algebra. To the school boy or school girl it is in the main an objectless pursuit."

MPORTANT TO STOCK GROWERS.

Blood, Beauty, Speed, Kind-ness and Endurance.

Those who desire to raise first-class soick, and all lovers of good horses, are respectfully in-formed that the Hambletonian trotting stallion,

YOUNG DEXTER:

ill stand for a limited number of mares using season, at the Homestead Stock suing season, at the Homestead Stock Farm, Greenwich, Washington County, N. Y.; season to commence on the 1st of May and to end on the 1st day of September. Young Dexter was bred at Chester, Orange County, N. Y., is four years old, by Rysdyk's Hambletonian, stands nearly 16 hands high, and is one of the best of the get of his celebrated sire. Young Dexter is a half brether to Dexter, George Wilkes, Bruno, Brunette—allied to Mountain Boy—and other well known horses. Yory evidently, from his size, shape, etc., Young Dexter will not only bring gentle, fine and speedy stock, but also handsome carriage and family horses as well. It is manicarriage and family horses as well. It is mani-festly for the benefit of stock grovers that they obtain not only the best and most popular blood in the country, but also that which commands the highest prices in market, and it requires no more labor or care to raise a good coit than an inferior one. It was with the view to improve the stock of horses in Northern New York, Ver-mont and New Hampshire, etc., that Young Dexter was purchased by its present owner, Mr. H. C. Page, Editor of the People's Journal—the object being to benefit farmers and stock growers who are willing to undergo the care and expense necessary to the raising of good horses.
